Long, Heavy Hair?

Then treat your hair well. See that it is properly fed. Growth of every kind demands proper food. Starved hair splits at the ends, turns prematurely gray, keeps short and dry. Then feed your hair. Feed it with proper food, a regular hair-food. Feed it with Ayer's Hair Vigor. Thus help nature all you possibly can toward giving you rich, heavy, luxuriant hair. Ask your doctor about your hair and about Ayer's Hair Vigor. Follow his advice.

PHILIPPINE ISLANDS BUDGET

(From Manila Files to February 27.)

(A portion of this budget appeared in the Star of Tuesday.)

The Colonial Army.

MANILA, February 25. — Infantry and Cavalry regiments, which are to make up the permanent colonial garrison of the Philippine Islands have been designated by the Secretary of War. Cabled instructions received by the adjutant general of the division direct the dispatch of all regiments not to enter into the colonial army scheme to the United States. A regiment will return on each transport departing in the next eight months with the exception of the May transport.

When the movement is completed the remaining infantry regiments which will make up the permanent garrison of the archipelago will be the 8th Infantry, 13th Infantry, 15th Infantry and 24th Infantry. The 7th and 8th regiments of cavalry are the two permanent cavalry organizations selected.

The cablegram from Washington directs that the extensive troop movement be carried out as follows: 3rd Infantry, on March 15 transport, 21st Infantry, April 15; 14th Cavalry, June 15; 2nd Cavalry, July 15; 6th Infantry, August 15; 19th Infantry, September 15; and 9th Infantry, October 15.

Manila will be the center of one of the largest concentrations of troops within the next two weeks that has taken place here in many years. Besides the regiments which are taking part in the Department of Luzon maneuvers in Pangasinan and Bulacan provinces, two regiments of United States Infantry will be brought to the city from the Southern Islands to go into camp and await their departure for stations in the United States.

Mrs. Egan Recovering.

Mrs. Martin Egan, who was removed to the General Hospital upon the arrival of the Mongolia, is reported as being out of danger and resting easy after an operation for appendicitis.

The death was reported yesterday of C. F. Nicholson, well known broker of the city, with offices at 121 Alouague. Mr. Nicholson died at the General Hospital yesterday afternoon.

Assaulted an Editor.

J. M. Liddell, Jr., 18-year-old son of former Judge J. M. Liddell, of the municipal court of Manila, was fined $50 in Judge Yancey's court yesterday morning for an assault on R. McCulloch Dick, editor of the Free Press.

There was no evidence offered by either side, the young man pleading guilty to the charge, but in presenting the case to the court Prosecuting Attorney Bishop used strong language in characterizing the act of the young man, and stated that the offense was one which should result in a sentence of imprisonment rather than a fine.

The offense for which the youth was fined was committed last Tuesday afternoon in front of the Libreria de Colon, on the Escolta, and created quite a little excitement.

Newspaper Manager Short.

MANILA, February 24.—It developed yesterday at a meeting of the directors of the Manila Times that E. M. Webster, former business manager of the paper, was short in his accounts upward of $5000, for which he could offer no satisfactory accounting.

Last Wednesday Webster made an ineffectual effort to leave the city on the steamer Panglima, of the Polaris line, booking passage under the name of Davis. President Lawrence, of the Times Company, was informed of his intention and went on board the steamer and persuaded Webster to come ashore. An audit of the books was immediately made and the shortage discovered.

It was reported last night that Webster had made a full confession to the Times authorities. He has been a resident of the islands for several years, and has held a number of responsible positions.

Moro for Rubber.

Having broad areas of the finest rubber producing lands in the Orient, the Moro province is destined to become one of the great centers of rubber cultivation in the tropics is the opinion expressed by Brigadier General John J. Pershing, governor of the Moro province, to the Cablenews-American last night, when interviewed with regard to the progress being made by promoters of the industry in the Southern islands.

Marine Biological Survey.

A marine biological survey is soon to be started by the University of the Philippines in conjunction with the Bureau of Science. The rich waters at Puerto Galera on the coast of Mindoro are to be explored for the animal and vegetable life which they contain. Dr. L. E. Griffin, the dean of the college of liberal arts, will be in charge of the work which will continue for three months this summer. Alvin Seale, of the bureau of science, with a Filipino assistant will look after the fish. Dr. Howard P. Cowles and L. D. Wharton will go from the zoological department of the university, and later they may be joined by some others.

American Pioneer Dies.

Frank Maroney, of Baguio, and well known in Manila, where he has resided since American occupation, died Thursday night in Baguio. The body arrived in Manila Thursday night, and the funeral will take place under the auspices of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, of which the deceased was a member. He was also a member of the V. A. P.

Coal Merchants Fined.

A case was tried before Judge Crossfield, in the court of first instance, yesterday morning, the result of several months of careful and accurate work by agent Percival, of the secret service bureau, which promises to rid Manila of the short weight crime among coal dealers.

The case tried was that of two Chinese, Ong Sin and Suy Quo, charged with using false weights. The accused were convicted and sentenced to pay a fine of $200 each. In handing down his decision Judge Crossfield took occasion to remark that the offense of which he found the men guilty was the worst form of theft.

Washington's Birthday.

MANILA, February 22.—Washington's birthday was celebrated last evening in the auditorium of the Columbia Club by the Philippine Society, Sons of the American Revolution, Major General J. Franklin Bell, commanding general of the Philippine Division, delivering an address on the subject "Washington's Advice to His People and Subsequent Developments."

About fifty children ranging from four to fourteen years of age opened the ceremony by singing several national airs before an audience of about 200 people, composed of both Americans and Filipinos. The children were in charge of Miss Katherine Black, and who trained the children under her charge to the point of excellence. Many officers of the army were scattered throughout the auditorium, and civilians in the service of both the federal and insular governments attended.

MACFARLANE CLAN'S CHIEF IS SOUGHT

London correspondence of New York Herald:

"Will ye no' come back again?" is the new lament to the great Macfarlane clan. They are searching for the lineal descendant of their chief, who emigrated to America after fighting in vain for the cause of Bonnie Prince Charlie in 1745. All these years the Macfarlanes had not bothered about their lost chief.

Like the Highlanders on that fateful occasion at Derby, 167 years ago, which resulted in his disappearance, they, too, have been divided among themselves over a mythical fortune of some $5,000,000, which it was understood had been left to the chief whenever he could prove his identity.

Naturally the claimants were many, but only lately was it discovered that the fortune did not exist—not for a Macfarlane at any rate—and now they are turning their attention to the discovery of their long missing chief. A Macfarlane Society has been formed in London for the purpose of furthering the search. And they do not despair of finding him somewhere in America. A Macfarlane they maintain, is always a Macfarlane, and they doubt not that their chieftain has preserved his Macfarlane characteristics throughout the generations, despite the dominating environment of America, accent an' a' that.

A temporary chieftain has been elected by the society, chiefly because he is a "plus five man at golf," but he is as uneasy in his chair as if he were sitting on a clump of thistles, because, as he says, the chair is horrible by blood alone.

They held their inaugural banquet in a vegetarian restaurant in London, and the piper piped the Clan's march. "Thogail nam be hoidain," which, being interpreted, means, "lifting cattle we will go," among the cabbages, curly greens and "neeps and tatties" in the vestibule.

But, heh mon! though they chose a vegetarian restaurant for their feast, no doubt on account of its cheapness and the reputation of the place for its porridge and haggis, they did not bar the Mountain Dew. They saw to it that it was the real barley water, brought straight, without adulteration, from the homeland ayont the Tweed. Of course that was cheaper, too for dining in a temperance restaurant forby they did not require to pay any "corkage."

But it was a pathetic scene when the white-haired chieftain pro tem, arose and proposed the toast of their absent chief, and the piper wailed out the old lay, "Will ye no' come back again?"

Kind American friends are entreac-

ed to help find the heir to the chieftainship of the Macfarlanes. They think he should easily be found. As a rule a Macfarlane is well up toward six feet in height. His body is long in proportion to his legs, which are slightly bowed, and he should be able to tie his garters without stooping. He has dark sandy hair, and the more freckles he has on his face the purer blooded Macfarlane he is.

Of course, as the Macfarlanes in London say, "some o' these native characteristics may be watered down a bit wi' the American breeding; but he'll be none the less welcome for a' that. Just ye find us our chief, and mak' us a united clan again. His forebears must have fought for the independence o' America. Gie us him back, and it'll be a grand event for the celebration of the centenary o' peace."

GREAT DAYS, THESE.

Honoluluans are passing through climate that brings thousands of people from the mainland to her island shores. Down at Haleiwa there is a different and better grade and the cuisine is far and away above the average. There is a fine beach for bathers and the sea is always just right. Not too far away are the pineapple plantations, where the fruit is glistening like gold in the sunlight and nearer to the hotel is a great sugar plantation. Haleiwa is a resort head and shoulders above any other in the islands. An auto in the rent service is on the ground. Post Office Haleiwa.
